

South Australia, Tasmania, Western Australia and Northern Territory office network and key contacts list

IPAR is the largest provider of injury prevention and return to work services in Australia. Our client-centric services help people to safely and sustainably recover and return to wellbeing and work.

Our customers benefit from:

- ✓ Permanent employees from the local community (not contractors or fly in/fly out workers)
- ✓ An effective and timely service – we can be onsite, commencing intervention, within 24 hours of referral
